

Engaging and Connecting the Goodwill of Communities

Connecting communities through innovative technology, inspiring goodwill and creating positive social change.

Engaging and connecting the goodwill of communities

Be Collective is a digital platform which mobilises all of us to contribute to our communities doing what we can, when we can. Be Collective is for everyone.

- Be Collective is a platform for action and it delivers a 'step change' in value for individuals and groups wanting to contribute to the communities and causes they care about.
- Be Collective enhances volunteer management with tools that streamline processes, encourage participation and bring rigour and accountability.
- Be Collective provides powerful data and insights not currently available, with a suite of reports and storytelling features that record and recognise contribution and impact.
- Be Collective provides a verified Social Record and resume that highlights volunteer efforts, reinforces skill development and creates pathways to employment.

Why Be Collective?

While we are now more digitally connected than ever, we are not nearly as engaged.

- Too often communities rely on the same people putting their hands up to help each time.
- Community groups, NGOs and NFPs are battling for visibility and connectedness in a crowded and noisy space.
- Community groups and charities are asked to use tools that we would never accept in the business world.
- The experience for volunteers often falls short, not always matching a volunteer's unique skills or interests.
- Organisations are missing key data and reports that would allow them to maximise their impact and tell their stories.
- Businesses struggle to effectively engage their staff and celebrate outcomes.
- Many of our marginalised and isolated could benefit from a sense of empowerment or hope.

Something has to change. We need a holistic solution and approach that allows us to tackle this challenge and restore some resilience in our communities.

Be Collective is a platform that builds healthy and supportive communities. An integrated, networked hub where we can exchange people's time, skills, knowledge, resources and financial support and channel it to where it matters most.

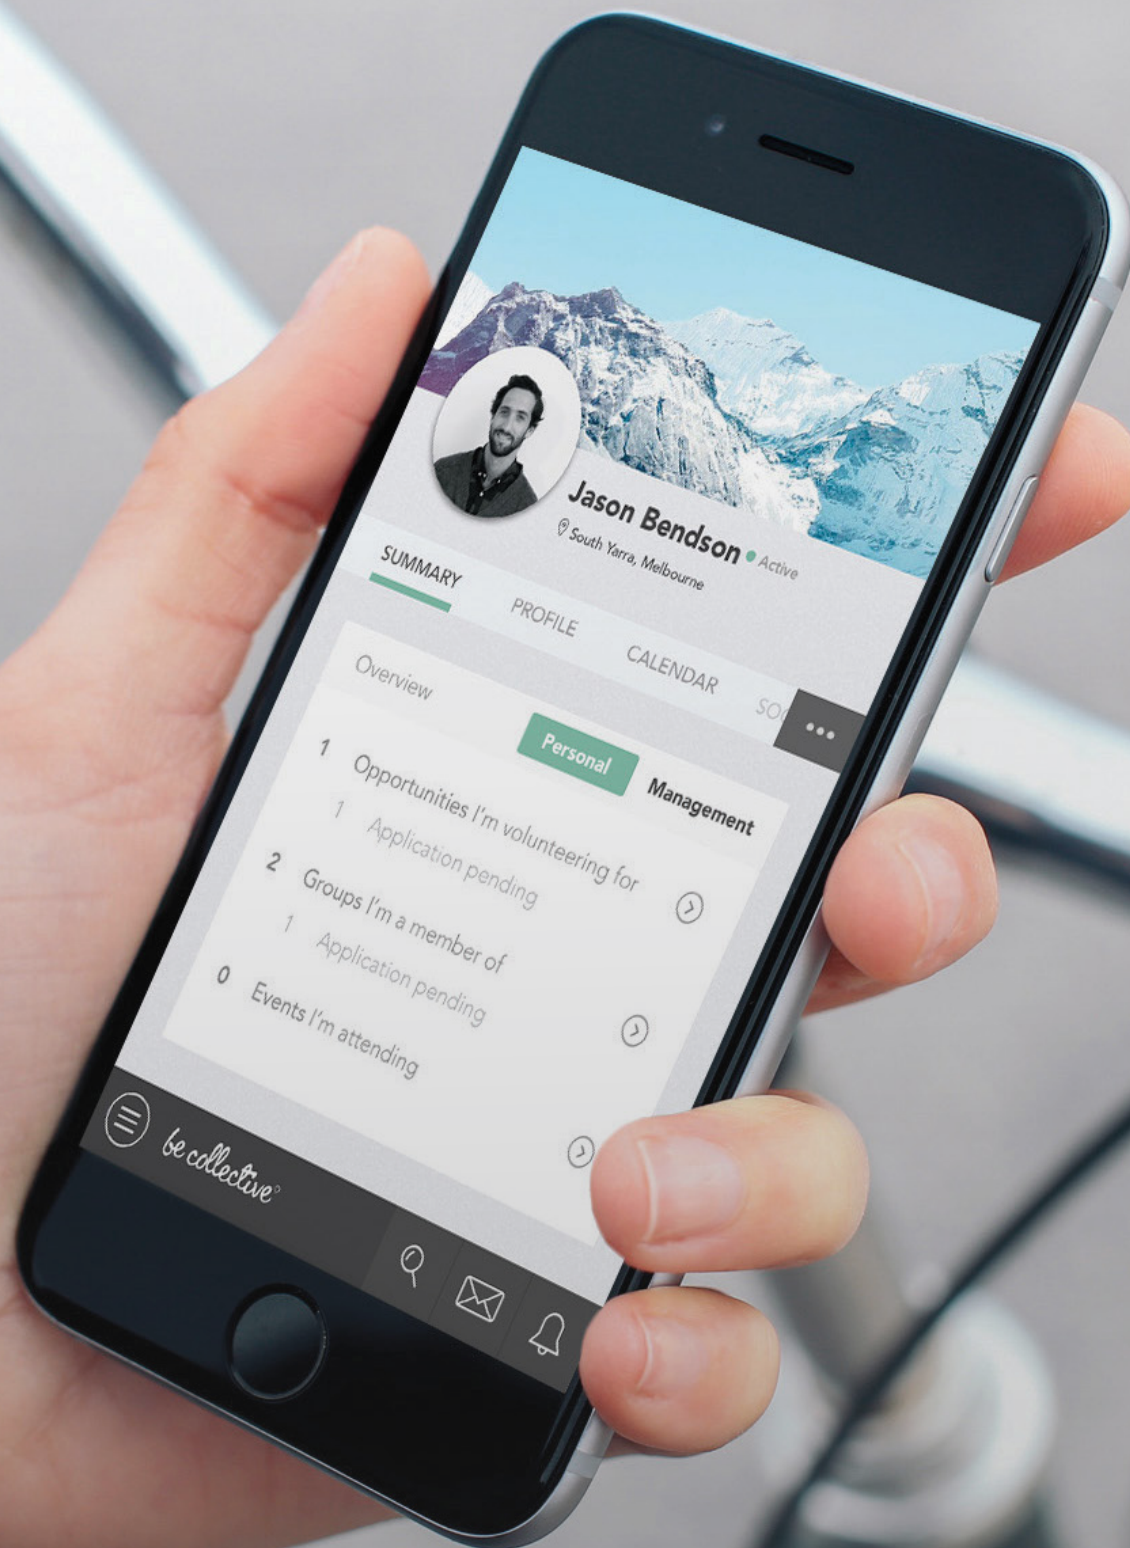

What if communities could better mobilise themselves in a time of need?

What if we had a better understanding of how well our community is engaged?

What if we could measure what was contributed and what was achieved?

Be Collective is social infrastructure delivering networked tools, supported by a national movement to harness and direct community spirit for the greatest possible impact. Be Collective eliminates duplication, misdirection and waste of effort, promoting a culture of kindness, recognition and support.

An integrated, networked hub for exchanging people's time, skills, knowledge, resources and financial support to channel it to where it matters most.

End-to-end volunteer management tools that increase value to participants, lift engagement and streamline operations.

Be part of a larger whole

Be Collective's social infrastructure uniquely binds communities together and gets everybody on the same page. It is a digital platform designed to be flexible and allow organisations to use the platform in a way that best suits their needs. Be Collective helps everybody realise their positive social impact in the communities in which they live, work and play.

ABOUT ME

I have been volunteering since I was in Secondary School. I've worked with a number of organisations for a variety of different causes – predominantly in the areas of child welfare and environmental activism. I'm passionate about these areas and if there's anything you need help with I would love to be contacted!

I live in Richmond and work 4 days a week but I'm open to helping out on my spare day (usually Fridays) but this can be flexible if I give some notice.

In the future I'm hoping to work with some early childhood education centres and schools to build my skill set!
